PETITION FOR REHEARING

Permit us to again call attention to one point (p. 91) which may have been overlooked because of the detailed discussion of facts believed essential to our original petition.

Former Jeopardy.

Petitioner was indicted in three cases. He was acquitted in one and received sentences in the other two. He must serve a year for the first conviction and after that is served he must serve another year for the second.

It is our contention that three cases were made out of the same transaction, that the acquittal in one case barred further action. Upon reconsideration, we direct your Honors' attention again to our claim that after the judge sentenced Petitioner in case No. 42-125, he could not be lawfully sentenced again in No. 42-126 (Our Petition p. 91, Abst. 274, 279 (17)).

A rehearing is respectfully prayed.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. SCOTT STEWART,

CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL.

I, Wm. Scott Stewart, counsel for the above named petitioner, do hereby certify that the foregoing petition for a rehearing of this cause is presented in good faith and not for delay.

WM. SCOTT STEWART,
